

Catania Family

Forty Seven Years in Hospitality

Founded in 1973 by Patriarch "V.J." Catania, the Catania Hospitality Group has grown from a single family restaurant on Cape Cod to an award-winning collection of resorts, spas and dining establishments.

1973

FIRST HEARTH 'N KETTLE
opened on Cape Cod - Falmouth, MA

Founder VJ Catania transformed a Pewter Pot Muffin House (his previous restaurant concept) into the first Hearth 'n Kettle.

More Hearth 'n Kettles followed:

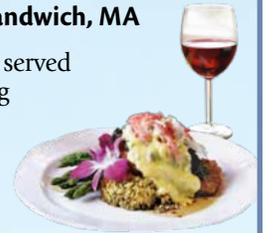

1975: HYANNIS 1977: YARMOUTH 1998: WEYMOUTH

1980 DAN'L WEBSTER INN

opened in Sandwich, MA

Built in 1692, the inn and tavern served as the Patriot headquarters during the Revolutionary War. The Catania's expanded and renovated this property adding modern amenities and the beautiful, glass-enclosed Conservatory dining room.

2000

CAPE CODDER RESORT
purchased and renovated - Hyannis, MA

The Catania Hospitality Group completely renovated this once seasonal hotel and turned it into an award-winning full service resort.

The Catania Family in 1980: from left to right: Dick, Marie, Vincent, Frank, Rob, Debra and Steven. Inset: Bill Catania.
From Cape Cod Today Magazine, November 1980

2002

FIRST BEACH PLUM SPA
opened in the Cape Codder Resort

SECOND BEACH PLUM SPA (2004)
opened in the Dan'l Webster Inn

Owned and operated by the Catania Group, these two full service spas offer an extensive menu of services. Spas are open to the public.

2009

CAPE CODDER RESIDENCE CLUB
opened at the Cape Codder Resort & Spa

Newly built, luxurious 2 and 3 bedroom residences brought a new fractional ownership opportunity to Cape Cod

2016

CAPE CODDER WATER PARK
opened at the Cape Codder Resort & Spa

30,000 square foot Indoor Water Park with retractable roof - open day and night, rain or shine, year round!

Features 4 body slides up to 150 feet; a stormy river; Pirate Bay kiddie play area, wave pool with 2 foot waves; 24 person whirlpool, Gazebo Café and more.

CATANIA HOSPITALITY GROUP

Tourism industry leaders and pioneers, the Catania's have earned the respect of their peers and built their reputation on the hard work of three generations and a dedicated team who are customer-focused and committed to exceed expectations in service, lodging and dining. They continue to set a positive example by supporting hundreds of non-profit organizations in the community each year. Traditional values are the fabric of Catania Hospitality Group: local to Cape Cod, reliable, wholesome and welcoming.

"Think of problems only in terms of solutions."

- V.J. Catania